"A CASA TUTTI BENE"

LIVE

FILM SCREENING OF "A CASA TUTTI BENE/THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE HOME"

Monday 3rd of April at 6.15PM - Walkinstown Library
EUNIC Ireland's European Film Club 2023
Information on the site EVENTBRITE

The second appointment with Italian cinema within EUNIC Ireland's European Film Club 2023 will be on Monday 3 April at 6.15 pm at the Walkinstown Library where the film "A casa tutti bene" (2018) directed by Gabriele Muccino will be screened. Alba and Pietro are a retired couple who own a villa on an island. On the occasion of the golden wedding anniversary, they organize a lunch attended by children, grandchildren and other family members. Due to bad weather, however, no one can leave the island and they're forced coexistence inevitably leads to confrontation between the various members of the family, sometimes cheerful, sometimes dramatic, rekindling envy and jealousy, resurfacing fears and issues which were never resolved. Participation is free. To view the 24 screenings in 6 different libraries and for more information visit the website.

CONCERT OF THE FOLK DUO SCIAPÒ

FOLK STREET MUSIC

LIVE

Thursday 6th of April 2023 at 6.30PM
Italian Institute of Culture, Pavilion Hall
Free entry by booking on iicdublino.esteri.it

Violin and guitar on the shoulder, the Sciapò duo takes popular music to the streets on a journey that starts from the melodies of the Piedmont mountains, passes through the Italian-French songwriting and arrives at the cliffs of Ireland. Since 2016 Sara and Sergio have been traveling between Italy and Europe aboard their Noè camper, participating in numerous festivals including Mercantia Certaldo, Festival Off Avignon, Festival della Terra San Gimignano, Pflasterspektakel Linz.

On April 6, in a free acoustic concert at the Italian Institute of Culture, they will offer a selection of folk songs halfway between Irish and Italian cultures with some songs by singer-songwriters. A concert not to be missed!

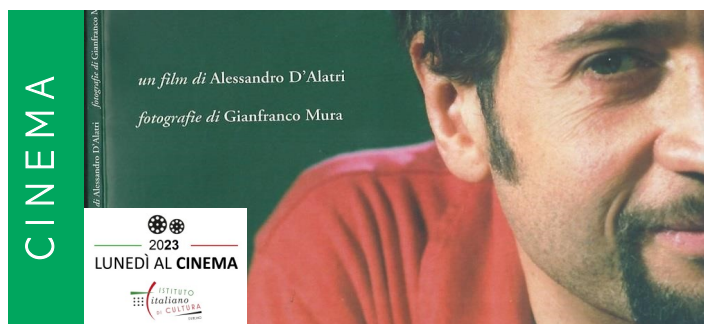

PASTELS AND OTHER PURCHASES FROM THE GRAND TOUR

LIVE

GUIDED TOUR AT THE NATIONAL GALLERY

Wednesday 12th of April 2023 at 1PM
National Gallery of Ireland - Merrion Sq. entrance
Free booking here iicdublino.esteri.it

A free tour of the National Gallery of Ireland with Adrian Le Harivel, curator of British art. In conjunction with a rare exhibition of pastel drawings (until June 5) housed in the National Gallery of Ireland, we offer you the chance to relive the wealth of art inspired by travellers in Italy during the eighteenth century and to learn about the stories of lovers of the Grand Tour. A set of 6 portraits of Rosalba Carriera and pastel works by Hugh Douglas Hamilton precede the art of the most sought-after Roman and Italian artists (Pompeo Batoni, Anton Mengs, Giovanni Panini, Antonio Canova) and views of Venice. Free event in English. Free booking on our website.

FILM SCREENING OF "LA FEBBRE" (ENGLISH SUBTITLES)

Monday 17th of April 2023 at 6PM
Italian Institute of Culture, Pavilion Hall
Free entry by booking on iicdublino.esteri.it

"La febbre" (2005) is a film by Alessandro D'Alatri. Mario Bettini (Fabio Volo), a thirty-year-old surveyor from the province, is a young man full of ideas, enthusiastic about life and full of desire to live it. He has a dream in his heart: to open a restaurant with his friends. For the restaurant, he is willing to live a portion of temporary life, accepting to wear clothes different from his own. So, when a letter of employment arrives, unexpectedly, to the municipality, Mario decides to accept the job, even if contrary to his spirit. But he encounters the squalor of bureaucracy, subterfuge, greyness, humiliation. But the meeting with a girl, Linda (Valeria Solarino), opens up other existential perspectives and gives him the opportunity to dream again... The film will be screened in Italian with English subtitles.

SECOND EDITION OF THE N.I.C.E. ITALIAN FILM FESTIVAL IRELAND

LIVE

20-23 April 2023, The Gate Cinema, Cork
28 April - 1 May 2023, Light House Cinema, Dublin
Information on the website:

www.nicefestival.org/en/nice-festival-ireland/

We are pleased to announce the second edition of the N.I.C.E. Film Festival Ireland! After the successful first edition during 2022 in Cork, with a preview in Dublin, this year we are very proud to launch two complete editions of the Festival in Ireland's two principal cities. It is an opportunity to discover a selection of 9 brand new films that tell the story of Italy's past and present. The screening of a film by Pierfrancesco Diliberto (alias PIF), an author and director much loved in Italy, will open this second edition. The movie describes with irony and modernity the themes of work, media society and human in the age of the internet. We will also present films by emerging Italian directors that tell the needs and difficulties of today's young people and explore themes such as social integration, crime and immigration, which are so central in the current Italian debate and imagination.

AEROWAVES SPRING FORWARD FESTIVAL LIVE

PERFORMANCE "IN THE MOMENT" BY CAMILLA MONGA AND EMANUELE MANISCALO

28 April 2023 at 12.30 PM and 4 PM

Project Arts Centre (Upstairs) – Dublin

Info and tickets: <https://aerowaves.org/spring-forward/>

Aerowaves operates in Europe and aims to discover and evaluate new and emerging dance talent. Every year a network of 44 Aerowaves partners, extended to 33 countries, launches a public call for the valorisation of contemporary dance creations to be represented in the Spring Forward Festival which is held annually in a different European city. In 2023, the Festival will be held in Dublin from April 27-29. Among the selected shows, and thanks to the support of the Italian Institute of Culture, "In the Moment" by Camilla Monga and Emanuele Maniscalco will be performed on 28 April at the Project Arts Center in Dublin. The event will be preceded on April 26 at 6.30 pm by the commented screening of a short film by Camilla Monga at the Italian Institute of Culture in an evening, by invitation only, in which young artists, curators and critics will take part.

TARANTACELTICA LIVE ON TOUR IN IRELAND

Musical Project

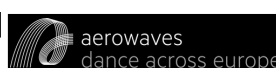

27 April 2023-Raheen House, Clonmel, Co.Tipperary

28 April 2023-The White House, Ballincollig, Cork City

29 April 2023-Ballydehob Jazz Festival

This ground-breaking collaboration between Irish Trad and the traditional music of Southern Italian, known as the Tarantella, delivers a unique concert experience that entwines and unwinds these two vibrant cultures. Master percussionists Andrea Piccioni and Dave Boyd have gathered a world-class ensemble of multi-instrumentalists. Celebrated Calabrese instrumentalist and singer Mico Corapi will be joined by Francesco Loccisano, recognised in his homeland for his virtuoso reinvention of the chitarra battente. The Irish tradition will be represented by Wicklow sisters, Lottie and Courtney Cullen on uilleann pipes, flutes, concertina, and fiddle, and renowned Tipperary musician Brian Morrissey on banjo, mandolin, whistles and bodhrán. The Irish tour TarantaCeltica is supported by Istituto Italiano di Cultura. Information and tickets: <https://tarantaceltica.com/>
