Guided Tour online "Milan: Brera Art Gallery and its district" with Artaway in English

ONLINE

In this guided tour we will admire the masterpieces of the Brera Art Gallery, one of the most picturesque districts of Milan. We will stroll through its narrow streets, meeting street artists and fortune tellers. A characteristic trait of Brera, which differentiates it from other Italian museums, is the presence of great masterpieces from different schools: Lombard, Tuscan and Central Italy, Veneto as well as important paintings from the Flemish school. This derives from the setting given to the museum since the Napoleonic era, when it was conceived as a representative place of all Italian art from every era and every region. Guided tour in English.
