

JULY 2026 - PROGRAMME OF CULTURAL EVENTS

1 July - 31 August

Women of the Republic – Eighty Years of Achievements in the ANSA Chronicles. 1946 – 2026
Italian Institute of Culture, Dublin

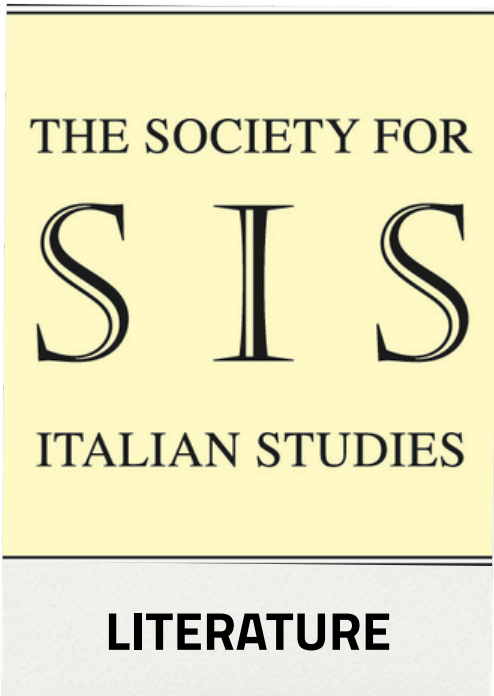

On the occasion of the 80th anniversary of women’s suffrage in Italy, the ANSA news agency has produced the photographic exhibition “Women of the Republic – Eighty Years of Achievements in the ANSA Chronicles. 1946 – 2026”, under the patronage of the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Through black-and-white and colour photographs, the exhibition retraces the progress of women’s achievements and the profound transformation of Italian society in this field.

4 July - 8 August

"Let's Walk and Talk" in Italian!
2:00 pm
Italian Institute of Culture

Dublin City Council, together with Amici Di Dublino and the Italian Institute of Culture is pleased to present “Let’s Walk and Talk,” a free walking and conversation initiative where you can speak, practice, or learn Italian while discovering the city, in the company of other Italian language and culture enthusiasts. We meet every Saturday at 2:00 PM in front of the Italian Institute of Culture in Fitzwilliam Square for a walk along the neighborhood and canals, suitable for both beginners and those who simply want to practice their Italian.

9 July - 11 July

SOCIETY FOR ITALIAN STUDIES
Biennal Conference - Dublin
University College Dublin

The Italian Institute of Culture proudly supports the Society for Italian Studies Biennal Conference – SIS Dublin 2026, one of the leading international events dedicated to Italian Studies.
